What is the TiVo Service?

TiVo is an easy-to-use personal TV service that runs on a digital video recorder available from trusted brands like Philips, Hughes, and Sony. TiVo transforms your television-watching experience, giving you the power and convenience to:

- Digitally record programs with the touch of a button, without setting a timer or using videotapes.
- Create your own TV schedule, featuring your favorite programs, ready to watch at the touch of a button.
- Set up a TiVo Season Pass™ to record your favorite programs every week, automatically - even if it changes timeslots.
- Pause, rewind, slow-motion, and even instant replay live broadcast TV, on command.
- Control viewing experience, using three-speeds of fast-forward and rewind.
- Quickly and easily search scheduled programs up to two weeks in advance.
- Configure program listings to display only the channels and networks you prefer.
- Transfer recorded programs to a VCR.
- Rate programs based on your preferences using TiVo's exclusive Thumbs Up™ and Thumbs Down™ buttons; TiVo will then find and record other shows you like, automatically - even if you didn't know they were on.

Top of Page

What special features do I get with my TiVo Service?

Only TiVo offers original programming to help you uncover the very best (including hidden gems) of all that television has to offer, and across every genre — from sitcoms to sports.

- TiVo™ Magazine Keep current on television's most exciting offerings, including premieres, sporting events, seasonal specials, award shows, programs for children, and more with this daily on-screen catalogue exclusively produced by TiVo's editorial team.
- Network Showcases™ A daily update of the best shows the TV networks have to offer. Get recommendations for great TV straight from the source!
- Ipreview™ For the first time ever, schedule recordings of shows on impulse while watching the network previews for those shows. It's TiVo's exclusive interactive service — with the click of a remote, TiVo's got you covered.
- TiVo's Suggestions™ Rate programs you enjoy by pressing the exclusive Thumbs Up™ and Thumbs Down™ buttons on the TiVo remote control and TiVo will suggest and even record shows that match your interests.
- WishList™ TiVo will find and record programs based on your favorite actor, director, category, keywords, and even combinations.
- Automatic recording-conflict resolution - TiVo automatically detects recording conflicts and helps you resolve them. You can select which programs to keep and for how long.
- TiVo's intelligent disc-management technology - TiVo offers up to two weeks of programming information and manages recording space just before the programs are broadcast so you will never run into conflicts for shows that aren't being aired at the same time.
- TiVo's TrickPlay™ status bar - See - at a glance - when a program begins and ends, its duration, how much of the show has been recorded, and where you currently are in the program- both in live TV and in a recorded program.

Can I watch a program while recording another?

Yes. You can playback any of the programs that have been recorded in Now Playing while recording a live program.

Top of Page

Does the TiVo Service include program listings for my area?

The TiVo Service includes complete listings for over 13,000 cable systems, DIRECTV, Dish-Echostar, and terrestrial broadcast TV systems in the U.S.

Top of Page

How do I pay for the TiVo Service?

You currently have a choice of TiVo Service payment options:

- DIRECTV subscribers pay a $4.99 Monthly Subscription, included as part of their monthly DIRECTV bill
- Subscribers who do not subscribe to DIRECTV pay a $9.99 Monthly Subscription
- $299.00 product Lifetime Subscription.

Top of Page

How does TiVo know which programs I'll like?

Your personalized list of TiVo's Suggestions™ brings you programming based on your likes and dislikes as registered by using the unique Thumbs Up™ and Thumbs Down™ buttons on the TiVo remote. Anytime you're watching a program - whether it's live or prerecorded - you can rate it by pressing the Thumbs Up button or the Thumbs Down button. Information about the programs you rate are then saved locally on your recorder and help build your personal television preferences. Then, once the latest program listings reach your recorder the TiVo Service sorts through available data, and makes recommendations uniquely suited to your tastes. You can find these suggestions - listed in order of how closely they match your preferences - under TiVo's Suggestions.

Over time, as your personal TV preferences become more detailed, the list of TiVo's Suggestions will become more and more accurate, offering you plenty of entertainment options you otherwise might have missed.

How long can I pause live TV?

You can pause live TV for as long as 30 minutes. After 30 minutes, the program resumes playing, 30 minutes behind "real time." That way, you continue watching exactly where you initially paused. If more time is needed, you may want to select the record option at any time and record the entire program.

Top of Page

How many days of future program listings does TiVo contain?

The TiVo Service provides up to two weeks of programming information.

Top of Page

How many shows can the recorder save?

Recording capacity varies from product to product. Different recorders offer ranges from 20 to 60 hours of recording.

For the DIRECTV Receiver with TiVo, you can digitally record up to 35 hours of programming. Actual recording capacity depends on type of programming being recorded.

What does a Lifetime subscription mean?

A Lifetime subscription to the TiVo Service covers the life of the recorder or receiver you buy - not the life of the subscriber. The Lifetime subscription accompanies the product in case of ownership transfer. The subscription remains in effect even if you upgrade your recorder, for example, to increase storage capacity or if the recorder needs to be repaired or replaced due to a malfunction.

Because a Lifetime subscription is linked to a particular recorder, it cannot be transferred to any other recorder (unless the recorder is replaced due to a malfunction covered by the manufacturer's warranty). Each recorder purchased requires its own service subscription and activation.

Should I get rid of my VCR?

NO! TiVo might actually bring some life back into your VCR. Though your recording of shows will be done through the TiVo itself, you can store, archive, and/or save your programs on VCR tapes. Many people do this in order to save space on their Tivo and be able to go back and watch something they had recorded previously a long time ago.

Does TiVo allow me to fast forward through commercials?

The TiVo remote control has three-speeds of fast forward and rewind that enable you to easily skim through any program you've recorded at 3, 18, or 60x normal speeds. You can speed through 1 hour of programming in about 1 minute.

Top of Page

Can TiVo record from Pay-Per-View Channels?

Yes. Once you manually authorize a Pay-Per-View purchase from your cable or satellite company, TiVo allows you to tune to and automatically record that program.

Will TiVo tie up my phone line?

No. The toll-free, daily call takes place when you're not using the phone line. Your phone will always be available for personal use, regardless of time. TiVo will not interrupt an existing call nor will it interfere with call waiting, incoming, or outgoing calls. The initial setup call can take several minutes, but will not have to be repeated unless you move or change cable or satellite providers.

Does TiVo know what I'm watching?

No one outside your home, not even the TiVo staff or any of TiVo's computer systems, will ever have access to any of your personal viewing information without your prior consent. Your preferences are personal. The TiVo Service has no way of knowing what shows you personally watch or have rated with "Thumbs Up" or "Thumbs Down".

Does TiVo collect data about what television programs I watch?

All the information required for suggestions is contained within the Personal TVTM Receiver. It processes the information and provides recommendations uniquely suited for you based on your viewing preferences to date, which are also stored locally on your Receiver. TiVo aggressively protects your privacy and cannot correlate your personal information with what television programs you watch without your prior consent.

Top of Page

Can I save my favorite recordings to a tape via my VCR?

Yes. In accordance with consumer electronics guidelines, the recorder provides analog audio/video outputs that are designed to work with a VCR.

How long are programs stored once they've been recorded?

TiVo will only delete programs when the recorder is at its capacity to make room for other shows you've requested. In this case, TiVo will first delete TiVo's Suggestions followed by the oldest programs. You can also manually control how long to store programs and can transfer any recorded program to tape using a VCR.

Why do I need a phone connection?

TiVo works by automatically making a brief, daily call to maintain your TiVo Service. The call is automated and toll-free and lasts just a few minutes. Furthermore, it occurs when your phone is unlikely to be in use, usually at night. You do not need to install a new telephone jack or phone number.

Will TiVo work with my TV setup?

TiVo works with and connects easily to virtually every television model available. TiVo stand alone units work with VCRs, TV antennas, cable systems, and satellite systems. A DIRECTV Receiver with TiVo will work with your VCR and is proprietary to DIRECTV programming.

Top of Page

If I already own a DIRECTV Receiver with TiVo, will I get the dual tuner function?

Yes - all TiVo subscribers will automatically get the free TiVo Service upgrade via the phoneline.

Top of Page

Will I pay more for the dual tuner functionality?

Not for TiVo Service - TiVo subscribers will enjoy the dual tuner capabilities at no extra charge.

Possibly for hardware hookups - If you do not already have a dual LNB satellite dish, or two satellite feeds into the unit, you may have additional costs associated with upgrading your satellite set-up.

Top of Page

If I don't have two satellite feeds or a dual LNB dish, what should I do?

As with any DIRECTV system, you can install the 2nd satellite feed or dual LNB dish yourself, or you can call a retailer or satellite installer for assistance.

Top of Page

If I already have a dual LNB dish and two satellite feeds into the unit, what do I do?

TiVo will send a message to your system as soon as you receive the upgrade explaining the simple steps to enable the 2nd tuner - it takes about 3 mins!

Top of Page

What product do I need to buy in order to get the TiVo Service?

TiVo has partnered with the most trusted consumer electronics brands in the TiVo has partnered with the most trusted consumer electronics brands in the industry to bring different product offerings. Choose a stand alone personal video recorder OR you can also buy a DIRECTV Receiver with TiVo from Philips, Hughes, or Sony.

What if I move?

No problem. The recorder and the TiVo Service work all over the United States. First, call TiVo Customer Care at 1-877-FOR-TiVo and let them know. TiVo will update your billing information so that your TiVo Service will continue without interruption. Once you move to your new location, connect the recorder and complete the Guided Setup. Follow the instructions, updating your new zip code, local phone dial-in number, and cable/satellite provider information, and you're set!

Top of Page

How do I subscribe to the TiVo Service?

When you purchase a stand alone personal video recorder, you can activate your TiVo Service subscription by logging onto <https://www.tivo.com/activate> or by calling 1-877-FOR-TiVo.

If you purchase a DIRECTV Receiver with TiVo, you must activate the TiVo Service by calling 1-800-DIRECTV.

Top of Page

Do you use information on what I'm watching to send me junk mail and ads?

No. The TiVo Service does not know what you're watching and does not collect any personal information on your viewing habits without your prior consent.
